COMPUTER LITERACY PROGRAMME

COMPUTER LITERACY PROGRAMME (CLP) was initiated by the Government of Tamil Nadu in all the Government colleges in Tamil Nadu from the year 2000. It was run through the agency NIT. After the completion of the contract, in the year 2005 it was taken over by the Tamilnadu Government.

It is a one-year Computer Literacy Programme which is conducted in all the Government colleges where the interested first year UG non-computer science students can enroll with the minimal fee. The enrolled students are trained separately and an examination is conducted by the Directorate of Collegiate Education, Chennai, and a certificate is issued. This programme is useful to impart and enrich computer knowledge to all the Non-computer science students. It also motivates the non-computer science students to learn and apply the computer technology in their respective fields of study.
